no.	Loring Mrs (Relief?)

Remarks on letter L.

The name of Relief Loring, Since many years a life Member of the Society, can be found on no list exhibited by the officers, except in pencil, at the end of "Miss Ball's checked list" where by perseverance she procured it to be placed, had her name called, voted in the negative: — & yet Miss Ball states in the Lib that she "could not have called" the names of Ladies she did not know, "& had no knowledge of." She declared her ignorance of Relief Loring at the meeting. Relief Lorings "No" is recorded & counted & yet she declares that she could not have called such names.

no.	Pero. Martha Ann.
no.	Prince Nancy
	Parker Mary Ann	yes
no.	Parcher Catherine

Remarks. Against the name of Pemberton, a "no" originally appears to have stood, upon Miss Balls list. It is effaced exactly as imitated above.

The name of Catherine Parcher, was not on any list Exhibited by the Officers, though She is a life member, & possibly her name may be on their list. With great perseverance, she procured the calling of her name, though it was not on Miss Balls list. It now stands there, as added at that time in pencil. Jane Putnam an old member, is cut off.

List Continued. — R.

Y

no. Young Mary.

List.

Remarks.

This list was carefully copied & twice revised by M. W. Chapman & Sarah Southwick. Miss Ball says her statement at the meeting was, 150 years. Her list shows but 149. But we may have omitted one yea. Mem. to ascertain this. Many members distinctly recollect hearing Miss Ball, when pressed by the fear that the Noes would defeat the election, rise upon her first declaration & declare that it was 158.

The names of J Louisa Bell Lucy Phebe, S.H. Whitney & Chas Curtis, are allowed by Miss Ball's list to have voted no. Therefore respecting these four there will be no dispute, though absence, & ignorance of their address prevents a more particular enquiry 17 Ladies, were, by a process of polite Magic which might put Signor Blitz to the blush, made to be invisible, & are counted by Miss Ball "by the word & testimony of Christ" to remain so! Their names are as follows.

Mary Ann Russell.
Mary Ann Allen
Olive Bush
Elizabeth P. Galanda
Hannah Capland
Hannah C. Cutler.
Bathsheba Fowler
Sarah Haskell
Sarah Haskell 2nd
Anna Maria Murray
Jane Putnam
Lucy Rogers
Catherine Sargent
Sarah H Southwick
Catherine H Shear
Deborah Shaker
Juliana J. Allen
M. A. Whitney

Jane Loye affirms that she carried to Mrs Gould the day previous to the last meeting a list of names to the number (she thinks) of 15 or more, of whom she knows & distinctly recollects the following.

Louisa Holt
Anna M. Murray
C. Riley
Mary White
Susan Davadge
Augenette Jackson
Susan Jackson
Jane Loye
Jane Kendall
Amelia Burley
Mrs Marshall
Susanna Jones

The following persons also, who have for years laboured with & occasionally voted with the B. F. A. S. S. learning that there would be an effort made on the part of the soi-disant board to cut off all from the privilege of voting whose names were not on the Secretary's list & not being certain that their names had been taken by her, as members at times when they had contributed money previously handed up their names & were sub. to the platform & were refused as members till after the meeting.

Emeline Avery

Emily Winslow.

Nancy Prince testifies that she saw & heard Margaret L Jones vote three times answering "yes" to the name of Jones, in two instances.
